Subject: COAH Resources Available

Dear Municipal Clerk:

COAH's website includes a number of model documents and other resources available for municipalities that are preparing petitions for substantive certification for submission at the end of December. A letter went out to all Mayors on November 24 that provides an overview of the plan submission and review process. This letter is also available on COAH's website. See the Fair Share Plan Preparation webpage under Resources to access this information at www.nj.gov/dca/affiliates/coah/resources/planresources.html.
