Hurricane Sandy: Recover, Restore and Rebuild

Incentives and Programs for Residents, Businesses and Local Governments

OVERVIEW

In the wake of Hurricane Sandy, New Jersey needs to rebuild vital infrastructure. Connecting our communities to the right resources, tools and incentive programs is crucial.

Sustainable Jersey is hosting two workshops to highlight new and existing incentives that are available to assist residents, businesses and the public sector in rebuilding with energy efficiency and future savings in mind.

CEU credits requested for County and Municipal Finance Officers, Public Works Managers, Municipal Clerks, and Qualified Purchasing Agents
