The Morris County Chamber of Commerce and Somerset County Business Partnership present a workshop on the future of Cloud Computing.

Attend this workshop and learn:

- The latest practices from seasoned experts
- A deeper understanding of the latest tools and platform choices from established and emerging providers and users
- Tips to mitigate risk and potential pitfalls
- Strategies for how to decrease cost while optimizing performance
- Plans to consider for designing, deploying and efficiently scaling applications in the cloud

The panel will feature the following four CEO/CTO leaders in the business community:

Winston Damarillo - Chief Executive Officer & Co-Founder, Morphlabs

Winston's focus will be on networking, software development, and open source technologies.

Lee Thompson - Chief Technology Officer, Morphlabs

Lee's focus will be on cloud infrastructure management, application, and software development.

Bill Ingersoll - Chief Technology Officer & Vice President, Service Delivery, The Casey Group

Bill is responsible for researching new technology and for selecting and implementing the foundation technology for The Casey Group's internal use as well as for client engagements.

Dhiraj Pathak - Director, PwC

Dhiraj focuses on helping clients with cloud transformation and specializes in cloud business strategy, cloud product innovation and engineering, cloud service management, and cloud security.
