Re: Two Upcoming Programs: Doing Business with the Private Sector

Dear Mayor:

On April 16th, 2012 and May 3, 2012, the League of Municipalities in association with the New Jersey State Chamber (NJCC) and the New Jersey Business & Industry Association (NJBIA) will be hosting a two part program on the topic of Doing Business with Municipal Government. This two part program is will discuss the different rules, regulations bidding process, ethics, and how to foster economic development. This program will be aimed at vendors who do business with Municipal Government.

The first program titled “Doing Business with Government-The Contracting and Ethics Rules are Different” will be held on April 16, 2012 at the Conference Center at Mercer. Panelists will include Mayors, DCA Officials, and Municipal Attorneys. Topics will include; the procurement process, ethics, vouchers, and pay to play laws.

The second program will be titled “Partnering with Municipalities for Economic Development” and will be held on May 3, 2012 at the Crowne Plaza in Monroe Township. Information on this event will be forthcoming.

For more information and to register for these programs please visit the League Website at <http://www.njslom.org/seminar-documents/2012-apr-16-ethics.html>

Very Truly Yours,

William G. Dressel Jr.
Executive Director
