The 2013 City Cultural Diversity Awards

The application for the 2013 City Cultural Diversity Awards and additional information is now available online. Please note the new requirement that all projects must be sent via PDF and the application fee can be paid by check or credit card. The deadline for submission is Friday, January 25, 2013. Visit the website for full details.

The award winners are chosen by a group of judges representative of all five of NLC's constituency groups:

- The National Black Caucus of Local Elected Officials (NBC-LEO)
- The Asian Pacific American Municipal Officials
- The Women in Municipal Government
- The Hispanic Elected Local Officials
- The Gay, Lesbian, Bisexual, Transgender Local Officials.

The awards will be presented at the NLC Congressional City Conference Celebrate Diversity Breakfast on Monday, March 11, 2013. Award winners will be notified at the end of February. A press release will be available following the Celebrate Diversity Breakfast announcing all of the award winners. Don't miss this outstanding opportunity to be recognized for your hometown's diversity programming. Your program could be among this year's winners. Only NLC member cities are eligible to apply. Visit the website for full details.

The City Cultural Diversity Awards Program has been developed by the National Black Caucus of Local Elected Officials (NBC-LEO), a constituency group of the National League of Cities, to showcase examples of how cities achieve excellence in diversity. The awards are given to honor community leadership in developing creative and effective programs to improve cultural diversity.
