The Louis Berger Group,

Superstorm Sandy are invited to attend one of three Access to Capital Forums hosted by the US Department of Commerce, SBA, USDA, FEMA, NJ Business Action Center, NJ Economic Development Authority, and FDIC. The forums will address:

Where is the money? What can Federal agencies, local banks, and other funding sources offer your impacted businesses?

Network with lenders, funders, and agencies to ask specific questions on their programs.

Many resources will be available to take back to your communities.

*It is requested that only Economic Development Leaders attend these sessions as they are designed to equip those leaders to take information back to their constituents. The intended audience is: Special Improvement Districts, Business Improvement Districts, Urban Enterprise Zones, Main Street programs, elected officials, county and municipal economic development people, planners, and chambers of commerce.
