Walk This Way Crosses the Finish Line!

Our Walk This Way challenge has officially come to a close! While we are finalizing our results, we can tell you that throughout the month, our participants logged over 14,000 miles on over 10,300 trips! Congratulations to all of our steppers, and remember to keep your eyes out early next week for a special edition newsletter announcing our winners!

Daylight Saving Time Ends

This weekend marks the end of Daylight Saving Time. Be sure to walk and bike with caution and if you must walk or ride after dark, wear bright, reflective clothing and carry a flashlight or equip your bike with a light. Remember, motorists will have a much tougher time seeing pedestrians and cyclists on their drives home, now that their commutes will be in the dark.

Watch for Deer!

It's deer breeding season, the time of year when they're on the move and deer/vehicle collisions are more likely to occur. Deer are most active at dawn and dusk, which are the times when it is even more difficult to spot them.

According to the North Jersey Deer Crash Coalition, there are approximately 7,000 reported deer/vehicle crashes in the state every year, while almost twice as many go unreported. Have a look at our tips for driving safely and avoiding our four-legged friends. Read more...
