Subject: School Safety and Security Summit - February 26, 2013

Greetings,

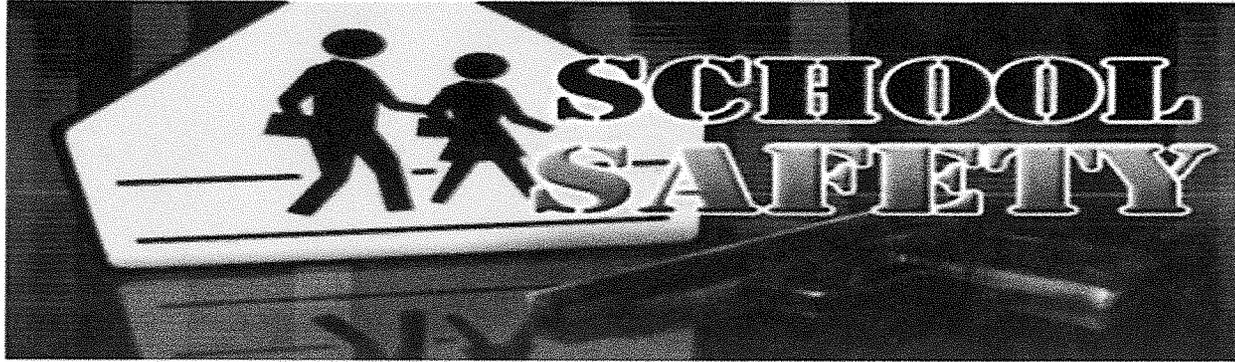

On behalf of Acting Prosecutor Fredric M. Knapp, First Assistant Prosecutor Thomas A. Zelante, and Chief William Schievella, you are invited to attend a "School Safety and Security Summit" on February 26, 2013 (6:00pm -8:00pm) at the Morris County Police Academy (500 West Hanover Avenue Parsippany, NJ).

This Summit is designed to promote discussions among all parents, guardians and community members highlighting the efforts that are being undertaken within our schools to keep our students safe. Additionally, it is sure to be an engaging and informative opportunity for the Morris County community members as guest speakers highlight the complexities of school security in the modern-age. Scheduled speakers will include representatives from the Morris County Prosecutor's Office, the New Jersey Department of Education, the East Hanover Township and Morris School Districts. Topics for the evening's discussion are to include school climate and culture, facilities preparedness, communication and reporting procedures, identifying the signs of potential challenges and the State of New Jersey's commitment to our schools.

This educational opportunity is free and open to all members of the Morris County Community.

Please RSVP (E-mail preferred) to Detective Keisha Higgs at RSVP@co.morris.nj.us or call 973-285-6268.
