Conference Workshop Schedule Now Available!

The 2013 Congressional City Conference, March 9-13, 2013 is your chance to influence actions in Washington that will impact your community at home. Hear from experts as they discuss the latest trends and information on the issues that matter most to cities.

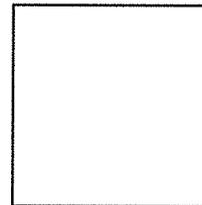

Conference workshops will offer opportunities to engage and learn with some of the field's leading experts in policy and government:

- Learn how to be an effective advocate for your community at the Winning Advocacy Strategies session
- Discuss local action being taken to reduce gun violence with a panel of experts at Reducing Gun Violence in America's Communities
- Hear from a panel of Mayors as they share their experiences in preparing for and responding to damaging weather events in Extreme Weather Events: Preparing Cities, Engaging Leaders
- Prepare to be a champion for immigration reform in Comprehensive Immigration Reform – What Does It Mean for Cities?
- Explore the role elected officials can play in improving local school systems at Educating America - How City Elected Officials Can Influence School Reform
- Understand how you can help ensure passage of the Marketplace Fairness Act and preserve the tax exemption for municipal bonds at

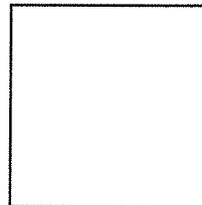

SPEAKERS:

General Martin E. Dempsey
Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff

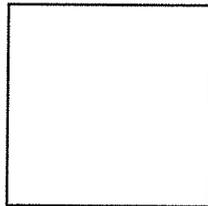

Steve Brigham
President of AmericaSpeaks

Frank Luntz
Bipartisan Political Pollster and Communications Expert

Protecting Cities in the Federal Budget Debates

In addition to these and other workshops, the conference will feature a Federal Agency Round Robin where attendees can meet administration officials from various agencies about federal programs and opportunities that might be available to cities and towns. Officials will be available to answer questions about federal resources, tools, grants, and programs of interest to local governments.
