Dear Property Owner:

I write to inform you that the Seward House, at 30 Flanders Road, in the Township of Mount Olive, Morris County was entered into the New Jersey Register of Historic Places on September 23, 2013. The New Jersey Register is the official list of New Jersey properties worthy of preservation. The Seward House is now protected by the review process for public projects established by New Jersey Register of Historic Places Act (N.J.A.C. 7:4).

I am also pleased to inform you that the Seward House was entered into the National Register of Historic Places on December 24, 2013. The National Register is the Nation's official list of cultural resources significant in American history, architecture, archaeology, engineering or culture.

Thank you for your efforts to sustain historic properties in New Jersey. If you have any questions, please contact us at (609) 984-0176.

Sincerely,

Daniel D. Saunders
Administrator
