RE: Reminder about this timely program from New Jersey Future:

March 9 Redevelopment Forum

Join experienced local leaders and professionals as they explain, step-by-step how to achieve innovative, high-quality, financially successful redevelopment that fosters community and protects critical resources.

Workshops are structured in a hands-on, case-study format, featuring speakers who have faced the challenges of redevelopment in communities throughout New Jersey. The lieutenant governor will deliver opening remarks, and the plenary session will feature cabinet-level officials discussing how New Jersey state government plans to foster redevelopment and smarter growth. The conference has been approved for six AICP credits.

Very truly yours,

William G. Dressel, Jr.
Executive Director
