Dear Municipal Clerk:

The NJ Department of Community Affairs (DCA) is accepting public comments on an Action Plan that details how the State plans to utilize $1.829 billion in federal funding for Superstorm Sandy recovery. This is the first phase of Community Development Block Grant Disaster Recovery funds provided to New Jersey by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD). The State has worked diligently to craft an effective Action Plan in a timely manner; however, before the Plan can be submitted to HUD for review and approval, the public is being given an opportunity to comment on it. The Action Plan in English can be viewed by clicking on <http://www.nj.gov/dca/announcements/pdf/CDBG-DisasterRecoveryActionPlan.pdf>. The Action Plan Spanish Version is at <http://www.nj.gov/dca/announcements/pdf/NewJerseyActionPlan-EnEspanol.pdf>.

Comments on the Plan can be submitted via Public Comment Form at <http://www.formsite.com/dcanet/CDBG/index.html> or via email to Sandy.Recovery@dca.state.nj.us through Tuesday, March 19 at 5 p.m.
