Stop and Stay Stopped

Spring has finally arrived and we're ready to be outside. While walking or driving in your neighborhood or anywhere throughout New Jersey, you may encounter the Stop and Stay Stopped for Pedestrians sign.

Some motorists and pedestrians know what the colorful sign posted in the crosswalk means. Others, regrettably, ignore it. With many people out and about, we're spreading the word to motorists and pedestrians alike to heed this sign and obey New Jersey law! Read more...

Is Your Workplace Smart?

The prestigious New Jersey Smart Workplaces (NJSW) program, which is free, annually recognizes employers for promoting commute alternatives for their employees. Read more...

Student of the Month

TransOptions Environmental Programs Manager Joseph Caravella (left) and WSUS DJ Steve Andrews congratulate Ryan Mullin, a student at Newton High School, on his being named Student of the Month for April. Ryan, who was recently inducted into the National Honor Society, is in Madrigals and Choir and is a member of the Cross Country Team.
