

RESOLUTION OF THE TOWNSHIP COUNCIL OF THE TOWNSHIP OF MOUNT OLIVE GRANTING PERMISSION TO USE A PORTION OF LOU NELSON PARK TO BUILD A MEMORIAL FOR NICHOLAS NOVAKY AND NEIL SOLANKI

WHEREAS, two Mount Olive Township teenagers and residents, Nicholas Novaky and Neil Solanki, tragically lost their lives in a motor vehicle accident in June 2012; and

WHEREAS, sadly, recently a memorial to both Nicholas Novaky and Neil Solanki at Fellowship Church on Wolfe Road was dismantled; and

WHEREAS, family and friends of these two teenagers want to replace the memorial that was dismantled with another memorial; and

WHEREAS, the Board of Trustees of the Become Awesome Foundation has requested permission to use a 12 foot by 12 foot area at the rear of Lou Nelson Park parallel to the children's play set to build a flower garden, place benches and create a tribute to both Nicholas Novaky and Neil Solanki; and

WHEREAS, if there are concerns as to the scope of the plantings and drainage the Township Engineer should be consulted to ensure the concerns are addressed.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, by the Township Council of the Township of Mount Olive, County of Morris, State of New Jersey, that it wishes to take this opportunity to honor and memorialize the lives of both Nicholas Novaky and Neil Solanki and hereby grants permission to the Board of Trustees of the Become Awesome Foundation to build a flower garden, place benches and create a tribute to both Nicholas Novaky and Neil Solanki in a 12 foot by 12 foot area at the rear of Lou Nelson Park that is parallel to the children's play set.
