Attend the Congress of Cities to learn and develop as a leader, but don't forget to have fun in Austin too!

Sometimes the best ideas come outside the workshop sessions. Join your colleagues for these social highlights at the conference:

Thursday Evening Exhibit Hall Reception

Check out the exhibitors, meet other attendees, and get great ideas, all while enjoying good food, music, and prizes at this popular event.

Friday Night Social Events

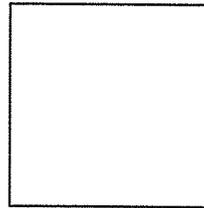

There's something for everyone on Friday night, when state municipal leagues and special interest groups host all kinds of social events. Kick back and mingle with peers in a lively and casual setting. You never know who you'll meet or what perfect solution you'll discover.

Saturday Night Closing Celebration

The energy-filled Closing Celebration at the Congress of Cities will be a terrific chance to visit one of Austin's most elegant attractions—the iconic LBJ Library. You and your peers will nosh on classic Austin fare while enjoying local live music (it is the Live Music Capital of the World™, after all). Hosted by the City of Austin, the event is inspired by the city's famous music festivals. This is a party you won't want to miss.

Register by September 30th for the early bird rate, and be sure to stay through Sunday so you don't miss out on the fun!
