NATIONAL LEAGUE
of CITIES | CONGRESS
OF CITIES
AND EXPOSITION
AUSTIN, TX | 2014

The early bird deadline for Congress of Cities registration

ends in 5 days. Here's why you need to be in Austin this November:

You'll learn what's in store for cities: Get the perspective of our keynote speakers--futurist Mike Walsh and journalist David Gregory--on what the near future holds for cities all over the U.S. Then, get prepared with tools and strategies at over 30 workshops.

You'll take notes from Austin: Go where the action is on a mobile workshop. See how Austin deals with challenges that will sound familiar to you. (Hurry and register--these are filling quickly!)

You'll get to know the city: We'll be staying in the heart of Texas' creative capital, and our closing event will celebrate all that's wonderful (think: BBQ and live music) about our extraordinary host city.

You'll step up your leadership: NLCU seminars will help you become a more confident leader and add a skill or two to your resume.

You'll meet the nation's city leaders: Your peers from every state will be at Congress of Cities. Will you?

Register today for a big discount. The early bird rates expire on Tuesday--don't delay!
