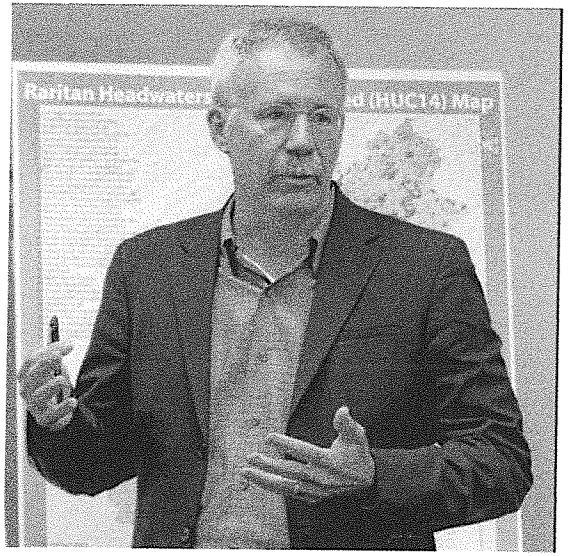
Big Wins for Clean Water!



We're proud to have played a key role in helping important federal and state conservation legislation reach fruition.

Director of Policy Bill Kibler played an active role in encouraging Congressional legislators to restore federal Land and Water Conservation funding. He also led a call to action resulting in the state Assembly's passage of a key implementation bill for open space programs, and participated in a push resulting in the NJ Assembly overriding of NJDEP flood hazard rules that would have set conservation back by decades.

George Schaberg On Board

We are thrilled to welcome George Schaberg as RHA's new Land Projects Manager!

George comes to us after recently serving as Director of Conservation and Stewardship for Orange County Land Trust in New York, where he handled all aspects of land preservation and stewardship activities related to protected lands. He is also a trustee and Vice President of the Ridge and Valley Conservancy headquartered in Blairstown.
