Pastured Pork from a Pro at NOFA-NJ's 2017 Winter Conference!

Jessica Isbrecht of Green Duchess Farm.

Interested in raising pigs on pasture? Join farmer Jessica Isbrecht of Green Duchess Farm in Hillsborough, NJ, to learn how to raise hogs responsibly and humanely. This is a "Snout to Tail" class on pastured pork, going into housing, fencing, feed, breed selection, pasture management, and finishing. One of the unique offerings in our livestock track at the Winter Conference.

Jessica Isbrecht is the owner and founder of Green Duchess Farm, a small-scale pasture-based livestock farm in Somerset County, NJ. A NOFA-NJ Journey person Farmer, she melded her Biology degree, environmental career, and love of animals to create a thriving farm business focused on sustainable practices, humane treatment of animals, and high quality food.
