A SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT FROM THE SUSTAINABLE RARITAN RIVER INITIATIVE

Dear Friends of the Raritan,

Please join me in extending best wishes to Dr. Judy Shaw, who is retiring from Rutgers' Bloustein School and the Sustainable Raritan River Initiative at the end of this year.

As you may know, Judy was one of the founding members and a tireless leader of the Sustainable Raritan River Initiative since its inception in 2009. Judy's enthusiasm and seemingly boundless energy helped to coordinate and cheer on efforts of the Raritan's many stakeholders towards a more sustainable region. We are grateful for her contribution. Best wishes, Judy!

About the Sustainable Raritan River Initiative

The Sustainable Raritan River Initiative is a joint program of the Edward J. Bloustein School of Planning and Public Policy and the School of Environmental and Biological Sciences at Rutgers, the State University of New Jersey that partners with other Rutgers schools, centers and programs to ensure the best contributions from the sciences, planning and policy for a more Sustainable Raritan River basin and bay. The Initiative works with the Sustainable Raritan River Collaborative, which is a network of over 130 organizations and agencies in the Raritan River region working together to promote the integration of sound planning and a vision for the Raritan Basin that balances social, economic and environmental objectives. For more information, visit our Website and follow us on Facebook.
