Go behind the scenes of Washington

Announcing two new speakers at The Congressional City Conference who will give you an insider's look at the current political environment:

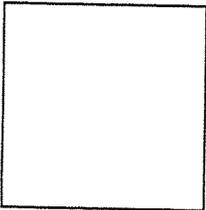

Ed Gillespie is one of the country's top communications strategists with a long record of success in business, politics, and government. A long-trusted staple of the Republican Party, he is one of a small number of Americans to have had offices in both the West Wing and the Capitol.

Democratic political strategist Donna Brazile is an adjunct professor, author, columnist, television political commentator, and vice chair of voter registration and participation at the Democratic National Committee.

Ed Gillespie and Donna Brazile join Meet the Press host Chuck Todd and FCC Commissioner Clyburn as keynote speakers at The Congressional City Conference, March 7-11 in Washington, D.C. Hear what they have to say--register now!
