RE: NJPDES Permit Expiration
NJPDES Number: NJ0021954
CLOVERHILL STP
Mount Olive Twp, Morris County

Dear Permittee:

Our records indicate that on 09/30/2015 your New Jersey Pollutant Discharge Elimination System (NJPDES) permit will expire. If you plan to continue discharging beyond this date, you must submit your renewal application at least 180 days prior to expiration.

If you do not plan to continue discharging after the permit expiration date, please submit a completed and signed Request for Revocation/Certification of Closure Form

The renewal or revocation application should be sent to:

Office of Permit Management
Mail Code 401-02B
Administrative Review Unit
Division of Water Quality
PO Box 420 - 401 East State St
Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0420

If you have already submitted a renewal application or written notice, please excuse this letter. To verify receipt of your renewal application or written notice, please call the Office of Permit Management.

Please be advised that various checklists and submission forms may have been revised since your permit was last issued. You may retrieve these updated forms from our website at <http://www.state.nj.us/dep/dwq/forms.htm> or by contacting the administrative review unit at (609) 984-4428 to receive these checklists and forms.

Sincerely,

Terry Beym, Acting Section Chief
Office of Permit Management
