NJT Statement on Union Negotiations

June 24, 2016 5PM

The unions representing locomotive engineers and conductors have ignored NJ TRANSIT's agreement to extend their 'cooling off period' until July 16. The National Mediation Board, the Federal agency that supervises railroad labor negotiations, requested that both parties agree to extend their no strike/no lockout pledge until the United States Congress returns from its recess. NJ TRANSIT agreed, but the unions have not responded.

Although the unions and NJ TRANSIT have been in contact many times over the last few days, their bargaining remains unresolved.

NJ TRANSIT is committed to ensuring that customers suffer the least inconvenience possible as a result of these unions' inflexibility.

NJ TRANSIT will outline next steps on Monday, June 27, 2016.

If you have any questions, please contact Government and Community Relations:

Regional Manager, Grace Introna at 973-491-8927; gintrona@njtransit.com or Senior Director, John Leon at 973-491-8098; jleon@njtransit.com

Thank you.
