"Without the arts, a city just isn't alive." - Steven M. Fulop, Mayor of City of Jersey City

ArtPride New Jersey is thrilled to be premiering the latest Art Matters NJ video postcard, straight from Jersey City. Featuring treasures like Art House Productions and Mana Contemporary, 07 Films has been able to record and capture the exciting and creative atmosphere that surrounds the Jersey City area. And we are proud to add this latest pin to the Art Matters NJ map!

Art Matters NJ, a co-sponsored project of ArtPride and the New Jersey State Council on the Arts, is an ever-advancing web tool that highlights the ways in which the arts help transform communities into vibrant, diverse hubs of economic and cultural activity. Visit ArtPrideNJ.com/ArtMatters to find the NJ pin videos as well as thematic video playlists that introduce some of New Jersey's talented artists and discuss the role of the arts in healthcare and education around the Garden State.
