We're addressing the big topics this year

You've read the headlines. You're hearing about a lot of turmoil in cities lately: acts of violence, natural disasters, and divided communities. You're also hearing about people in cities coming together to help during crises, and creative solutions to major challenges.

This is the year you need your network. Here's your chance to talk with your peers about your challenges, your fears, and your ideas. They're right there with you, and can help you find effective strategies.

Here are some of our most relevant workshops at City Summit:

- *Law Enforcement for Today's City
- *Local Dynamics of National Criminal Justice Reform
- *Addressing the Opioid Epidemic in Small Cities
- *REAL Action for Racial Equity
- *How to Prevent a Water Crisis

This is your moment to prepare. Register now for City Summit, November 16-19 in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.
