History maker to open the 2015 Congress of Cities

We're excited to announce that Vernice "FlyGirl" Armour will be speak at our Opening General Session in Nashville. Filled with lessons on taking on obstacles, infusing passion into your work, and working effectively with a team, Vernice's keynote will kick off the Congress of Cities conference with an energizing new perspective on your potential as a leader.

America's First African American Female Combat Pilot, Vernice draws from her own experiences overcoming challenges to inspire others to create breakthroughs in their own lives. She will give you a huge boost of inspiration for the next couple days of becoming an even stronger leader at Congress of Cities!

Reminder: Register for the Congress of Cities by October 9th for the advance rate!
